The Washington, Cincinnati and St. Louis Rattroad.

WASHINGTON, March 27 .- The House Committee on Radways and Canals had up the bill of Hon. J. Ambler Smith granting a charter to the Washington, Cincinnati and St. Louis Railroad Company and endorsing $15,000,000 of their bonds. Major Borst, president of the company, appeared before be committee, and made a very able effort in behalf of the company. He explained the secret of the road, pledged himself and the company to build the road in eighteen mouths, and carry freights for seven mills Fer ton per mile less than any present canal in the country. Major Borst described in cloquent terms the immense mineral wealth of the country through which the road passes. The bill was referred to Mr. Smith. of Virginia, who, it is understood, will report in favor of it if the company will contract to build their road to Richmond, Va. Weather Probabilities.
